CONFESSED TO MURDER, BUT STORY DOUBTFUL

Missoula, Mont., July 24.-A special to the Missoulan from Stevensville says:
William Parsons created a sensation here today by confessing that he had murdered a man at Camp Cook, S. D., six murdered a man at Camp Cook, S. D., six years ago. Parsons made his confession to Deputy Sheriff Daugherty. No one had ever suspected him of the crime and the confession was entirely voluntary. Parsons said that his real name was Clem Hanson. He has a wife and small son in this city. He claimed that he shot the man through the head, but was rather bark in his description of the crime and hazy in his description of the crime and the circumstances that led up to it. It is not thought that Parsons, or Hanson, is crazy. He was locked up pending an investigation.
